

Active Shooter-Procedural Anatomy and Mass Casualty Management Course

A combined functional active shooter educational experience and extreme use procedural cadaver anatomy lab for City of Memphis and Shelby County Municipalities EMTs, Paramedics, and Law Enforcement will be offered at the Medical Education and Research Institute (MERI). The course will focus on, response issues, scene management, and care of injuries that could be sustained during a domestic terrorist event - active shooter incident.

Date: Wednesday, February 3, 2016

Location: Medical Education & Research Institute
44 South Cleveland
Memphis, TN 38104

Time: 8:00 AM registration, Course 8:30 to 5:00 PM
Plough Foundation Grant Funded

Exercise Includes:

- Run. Hide. Fight Tactics
- Hospital, Pre-hospital, and Law Enforcement interactive scenarios, Replicated Hosp. Environment
- Interactive Triage, Treatment, and Transport
- Medical Branch ICS Refresher

Hands-On Lab Includes:

- General Anatomy and Physiology-related to injuries associated with High, Medium, and low ballistic injuries.
- Extreme Use Focused Anatomy and Procedural care -(basic/Advanced) related to injuries associated with High, Medium, and low ballistic injuries.
- Use of combat medical techniques for first responders (including Law Enforcement) on upper and lower extremities – to reinforce self-care and buddy-care in hot zone.

CEU's provided

Course Limited to 50 participants.

All Non-Memphis and Shelby County municipality health professionals and first responders may attend for a charge of $75.00

To register: Email ctucker@meri.org or call 901-725-8887