Cunningham Community Center Offers Singing and Sign Language Class to Area Children

MEMPHIS, TN (June 26, 2007) – The Cunningham Community Center Summer Camp – located 3773 Old Allen Road, 38128 – is teaching campers singing and sign language. Mr. Parker Conley, retired Memphis City School foreign language teacher and former Opera Singer, teaches this class on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

“This is a very popular class with both girls and boys this year” says Community Center Director Cheryl Garrett. “It is amazing how excited the children are in this class.”

The Singing and Sign Language Class is one more example of the free, fun and educational classes offered by the Memphis Community Centers. Mr. Conley has been volunteering his time as a recreational leader with Memphis Park Services for 20 years. He teaches music and arts, and is a foreign language tutor at the Cunningham Community Center.

The public and media are invited to visit his class and other events at the Community Center. Please call Cheryl Garrett at 377-3037 prior to coming.

The Memphis Park Services Community Centers are always striving to offer new and exciting activities to the community. Thanks go to the people who volunteer their time and get involved with the youth of Memphis. To learn more about the many opportunities at area community centers, please call 901-576-4203, your local community center, or click on the Park Services icon on the bottom of the City of Memphis Website, www.cityofmemphis.org.
