Treasure!

Opens May 24 at the Pink Palace Museum

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE (May 14, 2008) – Find Treasure! at the Pink Palace Museum in our new exhibit, Treasure! Treasure! takes you on your own personal treasure hunt: underwater, in the attic, buried in the sand, and glittering on the gold rush slopes. Find fun, fame and a $500,000 gold and silver fortune at the Pink Palace Museum with Treasure! That's half a million dollars found at the bottom of the sea. See it now at the Pink Palace. Treasure! is organized by NRG! Exhibits and locally sponsored by First Tennessee Foundation and ACH Foods. Discover Treasure! on exhibit now at the Pink Palace Museum.

Treasure is a word that stirs the imagination of everyone of every age. Treasure! explores the history of treasures and treasure hunting, the technology employed in hunting treasure, as well as the people and personalities that hunt for treasure, including you! A dozen hands-on activities allow you to try tools of treasure hunting and investigate treasures. This special exhibit also includes actual artifacts from shipwrecks and other treasure sites.

Treasure! is on exhibit in the Bodine Exhibit Hall in the Memphis Pink Palace Museum May 24, 2008 through September 7, 2008.. Tickets are $8 – adults, $7.25 – seniors, $6.25 – children. Group rates are available. For information/reservations, call (901) 320-6362. For pictures, please click on the Media page link on our web site's home page at www.memphismuseums.org
