

Where Memphis' Talent Ranks Among U.S

| Category   | Leading Ranked City | Median City | Memphis                       | Last Ranked City |
|--|---------------------|-------------|-------------------------------|------------------|
| Percentage of the metropolitan population 25 years old or older that have completed a four-year college degree, 2010.                                  | 54.3                | 33.9        | 26.6(Ranked 47 Out of 51) | 18.1             |
| Percentage of workers employed as Mathematicians, Scientists, Artists, Engineers, Architects and Designers, 2010.                                      | 7.6                 | 4.4         | 2.4(Ranked 51 Out of 51)  | 2.4              |
| Percentage of the metropolitan population that is 25 to 34 years old and has completed at least a four-year college degree, 2010.                      | 7.6                 | 4.6         | 3.6(Ranked 46 Out of 51)  | 2.4              |
| Percentage of metropolitan workers that have a college degree and are employed in private sector businesses excluding health care and education, 2010. | 46.6                | 29.4        | 23.6(Ranked 45 Out of 51) | 15.4             |
| Percentage of metropolitan population 25 years and older that have completed a four year college degree and were born outside the United States, 2010. | 49.6                | 12.8        | 7.7(Ranked 43 Out of 51)  | 5.6              |

Metropolitan Areas*